

BIOLOGY SCHOLARSHIP FAQs

Why should I apply for a scholarship?

These scholarships are given to students that have shown themselves to be high achieving and active in the Department of Biological Sciences. Besides receiving the monetary award, you will also have your name added to the Scholarship plaques showcased in the Science Complex.

What do I need to apply?

Yes, you need to complete the online scholarship application, which can be found at towson.academicworks.com. You also need to have TWO faculty members write recommendations to support your application. You will list them in your online application and the online system will email them the link to complete the recommendation.

Where should I apply?

All application materials (the application and two faculty recommendations) should be submitted through the online scholarship system at towson.academicworks.com

When should I apply?

As soon as you can, so get started on that application! Your application needs to be complete and submitted by the deadline of Friday, March 4th, 2022! This means you need to give the TWO faculty members writing you recommendations enough time to complete
